

ART GUILD DAY TRIP

Out and About in the East Bay

Wednesday, March 19, 2014 • 8:45am to 4:00pm

We will visit four different venues in the East Bay. Our day will begin at Professor Emeritus Peter Selz's home. He taught art history at University of California, Berkeley where he concurrently served as founder and director of the Berkeley Art Museum. Before joining UC Berkeley, Selz served as Curator of Painting and Sculpture at the Museum of Modern Art, New York. Throughout his career, he received several Fulbright awards and also held many visiting academic appointments around the world.

We will stop at Magnolia Editions where owners Don and Era Farnsworth will give us a tour of their art studio and gallery. For over two decades they have worked closely with artists to produce and publish fine art projects, including unique and editioned works on paper, artist books, and public art. Primarily a printmaking studio, they have been working since the late 1990s on a set of techniques which put industrial weaving technology in the service of artists. To date, they have woven editions by artists such as Bruce Conner, Chuck Close, Alex Katz, Ed Moses, Leon Golub, and Nancy Spero, among others.

We will continue on to visit Dorothy Lenehan's Architectural Glass studio. Because of her expertise in the field of glass design and fabrication, she has had the opportunity to work with several fine artists in the Bay Area to create Public Art Commissions as well as pieces for private homes.

After lunch at Loring Cafe in Oakland, we will visit Dana King, former award-winning anchorwoman for CBS5 and Good Morning America, who has seen a rebirth of her artistic self as a sculptor and painter. Along with her home/studio, we will see four other artists that share space nearby.
