

SUMMER READING CELEBRATION
Sunday, August 6, 2017, 12–4 pm

Suggested donation: $5 per person.
Your contribution helps us provide access to others.

PROGRAM All activities are in the Museum Gardens, Level 1

12–4 pm Books Giveaway and GoGo yogurtZ
While supplies last

Fun Games & Face Painting with the City of Oakland Office of Parks and Recreation

Create Your Summer Zines

Treats
Provided by the City of Oakland
Office of Parks and Recreation
While supplies last

Make a Summer Reading Button

Art Making
with California Historical Society

12–3:30 pm Caricature Drawing with Rad Sanza
Caricatures are handed out to each guest on a first come first serve basis.
Drawing is free and donations are welcome!

12:15 & 2:15 pm Meet and Greet Clifford the Big Red Dog
Get the perfect photo with our star guest!

12:30 pm Book Reading: The Princess Escape
with Sadiya Tyler-Laws.
All ages are welcome.

1 & 3 pm Magic Show
with Dan Chan Presents

2:30 pm Storytime
with Children’s Librarian from Oakland Public Library

Special thanks to:
All the individuals who volunteered their time to make this event possible!

OMCA Family is made possible in part by generous support from the Oakland Museum Women’s Board.

Supporters of the 2017 Summer Reading Program are Friends of the Oakland Public Library (FOPL), Fentons Creamery, William G. Gilmore Foundation, The Bernard Osher Foundation, The Kenneth J. Rainin Foundation, and Union Pacific Foundation.

