

Soul of the Dead by Jesse Hernandez

VIVO! Days of the Dead 2010

October 6–December 5, 2010

VIVO!, the 17th annual Days of the Dead exhibition at OMCA, marks the return of this ever-evolving Meso-American and California tradition. Altars and installations will look at the origins of this living tradition, as well as explore contemporary political and spiritual themes.

COMMUNITY CELEBRATION

Saturday, October 23, 2010
Noon–4:30 p.m.

The 16th Annual Community Celebration for the Days of the Dead. OMCA comes alive with the spirit and tradition of Days of the Dead. Craft activities; demonstrations; food; a Mercado; music and dance groups Besh Beni, Chan Kahal, Mariachi San Jose, Ixim Tinamit, SonRisas; and a ceremonia with Ernesto Olmos.

Learn how to make tortillas from scratch; watch amazing constructions of altars; and buy local Days of the Dead merchandise. Make your own masks, dancing calaveras, and tin ornaments. Local food vendors will sell tasty tacos and vegetarian Mexican food.

General Museum admission includes the Community Celebration, Days of the Dead exhibition, and the Museum's Art and History Galleries.

Bicycle valet parking provided by East Bay Bicycle Coalition.
