

CHELSEA RYOKO WONG

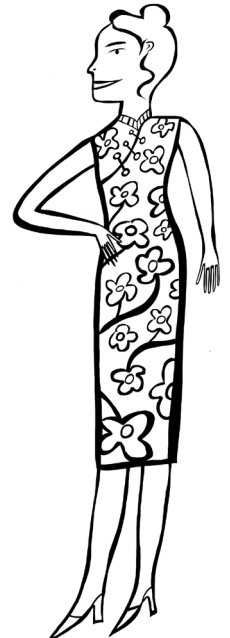

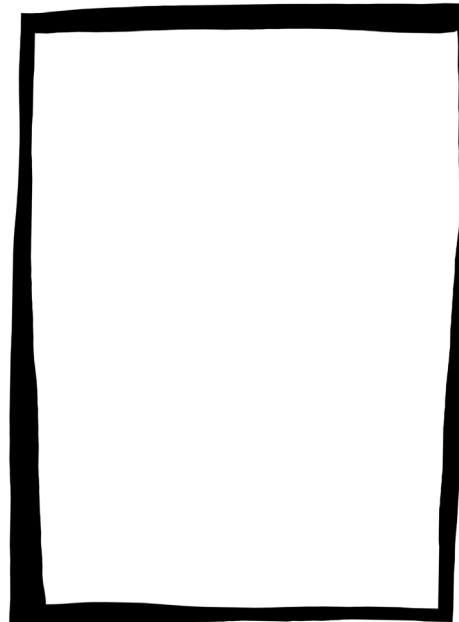

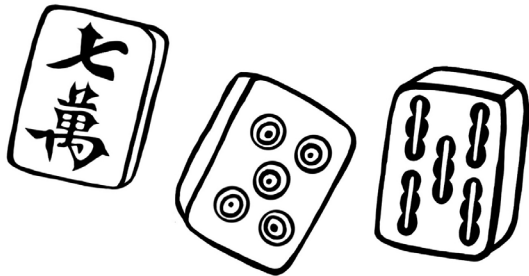

COLORING AND CONVERSATION GUIDE

After looking at dresses from the OMCA collection, Chelsea Ryoko Wong learned about six amazing Chinese American women from the Bay Area. This installation, Ancestral Visions, honors their stories.

What types of clothes, fabrics, or patterns show who you are, your culture, or tell your story?

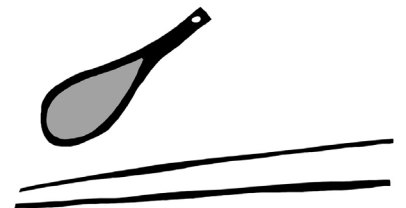

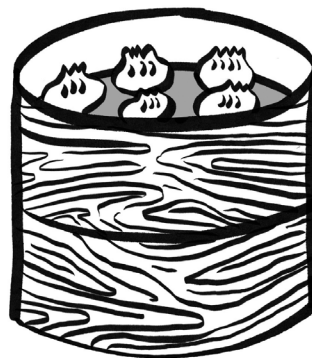

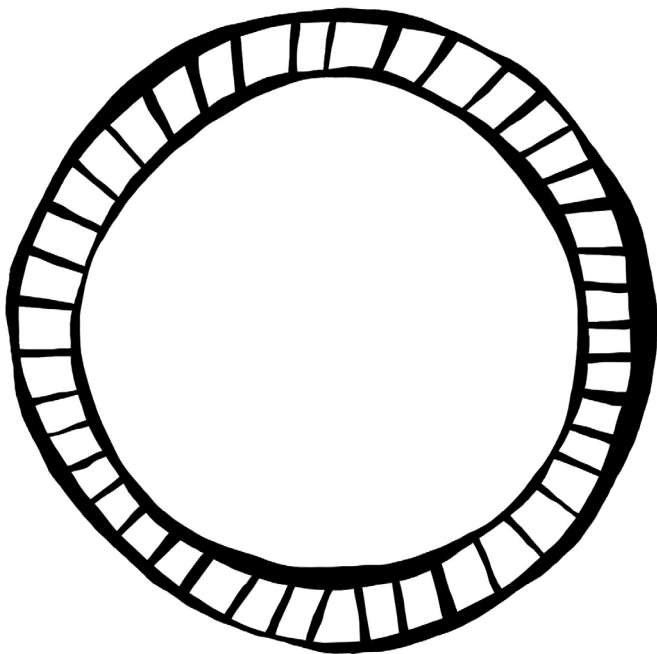

In the empty box, draw a piece of clothing or pattern that is special to you.

Many of Chelsea Ryoko Wong's paintings show cultural traditions, like playing mahjong or eating Chinese dim sum with family and friends.

What kind of food do you eat when celebrating with family and friends? In the empty plate, draw or describe the food.

What kind of games, activities, or celebrations do you take part in that help you feel connected to friends and family? Flip the page and add your own color and details to a drawing by Chelsea Ryoko Wong.

